From a "School of Theology" forming men for the priesthood ...

Mercer the early days

The Mercer School began in the post-WWII period to encourage men employed full-time to become Episcopal priests to fill the need for pastors for churches growing in the new communities springing up during the postwar period. The model for the School was a four-year version of the curriculum offered in three-year courses of study at residential seminaries. The level of work and commitment were comparable to that of any advanced degree professional academic program.

VIRTUAL LUNCH & LEARN

We are expanding this program of mid-day short courses in scripture, liturgy, history or theology designed for laity. Offering the classes via Zoom allows us to eliminate the commute! Each course meets for one hour on one weekday over a four- or five-week period. Programs offered at Advent, Lent, and Eastertide have been linked to the themes of those segments of our liturgical calendar.

Check our website periodically for announcements!

CLASSES

Through Spring semester 2021, the School will meet online via Zoom on one Saturday each month, from February through June.

The spring semester dates are: 2/20; 3/20; 4/17; 5/15; 6/19.
Class sizes are limited.

To a “School for Ministry” preparing all for 21st century ministries

Mercer in the 21st century

Until a global pandemic disrupted academic life, we gathered around a table seminar-style, or for larger classes in a horseshoe arrangement. Some students interacted with their instructor via video conference. Lay learners and men and women preparing for ordination engaged in the class side by side. In some classes lay students significantly outnumbered ordinands. As in the early days of Mercer, tuition for classes is funded by the Mercer Scholarship fund, with laity paying $25 per course.

TH4 The Content of Theology

NEW

Time: Section A (no prior TH courses)
9:00 am – 10:15 am
Section B (if you took TH1&2)
10:30 am – 11:45 am

Instructors: Rev. Dr. Joshua Samuel (Section A)
Rev. Canon Dr. Bruce Griffith (Section B)

The second of a two-term course covering the traditional doctrines associated with theology. Spring term we will cover humanity, the Christian community and its sacraments, sin and salvation, and eternal life. This class is taught in two sections. Students with no prior theological course work at Mercer should register for Section A; those who have taken TH1 and TH2 should register for Section B.

CH2 Anglican Christianity

Time: 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm

Instructor: Canon Ted Gerbracht

A broad historical overview of Anglican Christianity. We will briefly look at early British religious history and then gradually widen our scope as the English Church followed British traders, entrepreneurs, adventurers and missionaries around the globe, planting the seeds of what would become a loose Anglican Communion and a unique American Episcopal Church.

To virtual classes in response to the COVID-19 virus pandemic

Mercer now

Today's classes feel quite different. In mid-March 2020 we scrambled to move our instructors and classes online over seven hectic days. Now we routinely speak of Zoom fatigue, wrestle with IDs and passwords, and fuss with sound and video settings. But travel time to Mercer has been cut substantially; we still can move easily from class to class, and we can see and interact with each other in Gallery mode.

NT3 Acts and Pauline Epistles

NEW

Time: 9:00 am – 10:15 am

Instructor: Rev. Dr. Michael Hull

The course introduces the “Gospel according to Paul” and the Acts of the Apostles. It begins with an exposition of St. Paul as he speaks of himself in his letters and as he is spoken of in Acts within his Jewish and Hellenistic milieu. The focus of the course is an introduction to the thirteen letters of the corpus Paulinum. Selected passages from Paul's letters and Acts are exegeted in detail.

NT1 Synoptic Gospels

Time: 1:15 pm – 2:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Dr. Michael Hull

The course introduces the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke). The course looks to their structural similarities and to the meaning(s) of various synoptic pericopes with due regard to their geographical, socio-political, and religious contexts to expose and explain themes and issues in the Synoptics. Selected passages from each of the Synoptic Gospels are exegeted in detail.

LT2 History of the Book of Common Prayer

Instructor: Right Rev. Dr. R. William Franklin

In this course we will explore our current Book of Common Prayer in light of the evolution of Anglican Worship. Having established the context for our conversation, we will cover the spirituality and practicality of the book. With “Prayer Book Reform” discussion and forums active on social media, we will also consider which parts of our Prayer Book tradition should be retained as well as what might be discarded.

O God, who created all peoples in your image, we thank you for the wonderful diversity of races and cultures in this world. Enrich our lives by ever-widening circles of fellowship, and show us your presence in those who differ most from us, until our knowledge of your love is made perfect in our love for all your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
