Join us four Thursdays in Lent as we encounter

The Great Uprising: celebrating three days that change history

Each year the Church celebrates three days at the very center of our life as Christians, the great three days of the Easter triduum. Beginning as the sun sets on Maundy Thursday, until Sunset of Easter Day, we enter the mystery of the dying and rising of our Lord. This experience isn't a re-enactment but a drama where the events we celebrate are made present for us as we go from darkness to light, from death to life. In short, we walk through our own baptism in Christ as we walk through the Easter mystery. We will explore liturgical texts, hymns, and ritual drama from ancient Eastern and Western church traditions.

Join us online with The Rev. Canon Dr. Mark Kowalewski, Co-Dean Emeritus of St. John's Cathedral in Los Angeles, and Co-Vicar of Incarnation Chapel, Carle Place. As Easter approaches, we will gather together online four Thursdays from 12:00 noon to 1:00 pm via Zoom as follows:

March 20: What does it mean to live in a re-enchanted world? Sacred time and the Easter Triduum.

March 27: Entering the upper room and going to the cross: Day One.

April 3: He descended into hell," the mystery of Holy Saturday: Day Two.

April 10: The great uprising, Jesus's resurrection, and our own.
